

CHARLESTON PEACE ONE DAY

What A Day of Peace Means Submission Form

Each artist can submit up to three pieces each. The artwork must be about what a day of peace means to you. It will not be accepted if it is not the right subject matter or if it is not ready to hang and sale. Your work will be available for sale at the Peace Festival on September 19, 2010. 30% of the sale will go to Charleston Peace One Day as a commission, and 70% of the sale will go to the artist. By submitting this form and your artwork you acknowledge and agree to these conditions.

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

First Name _____ Last Name _____

Cell Phone (w/area code) ____ - ____ - _____ Day Phone ____ - ____ - _____

E-mail Address: _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

LIST OF ARTWORK:

Image 1

Title/Date _____

Dimensions (inches) or animation/video/film running time (min/sec) _____

Medium (Description/Process if necessary) _____

Image 2

Title/Date _____

Dimensions (inches) or animation/video/film running time (min/sec) _____

Medium (Description/Process if necessary) _____

Image 3

Title/Date _____

Dimensions (inches) or animation/video/film running time (min/sec) _____

Medium (Description/Process if necessary) _____

Please attach an artist bio and statement with this form. Label the back of every piece.

Please turn this form in with your artwork by September 10th.

Signature: _____ Date: __/__/__

By signing this form you acknowledge and agree that all the artwork submitted is your own work and not the work of others, and that all artwork will be sold on a commission basis. 70% will go to the artist and 30% to Charleston Peace One Day.